Shades of your personality:

Strength: You are blessed with a personality which has an excellent blend of energy and creativity. Your execution level is different from others. Your ascendant is Aries which can be termed as the source of energy. The most important thing on which you should concentrate is to make sure that your energy gets a positive outlet. According to an incident of Ramayana, Hanuman had a curse that he will forget his real power and would remember only when reminded or motivated by someone. Jamwant reminded him of his real strength and he crossed the sea reached Lanka and enquired about Sita. Your energy also sometimes requires such motivation. You have the capacity to motivate others only a little manipulation of the words is required.

Weakness: You sometimes get impatient and due to lack of proper analysis fail to take right decision at right time. Proper planning and consistency are the points you need to work on. Similarly patience and balance are often found lacking in your modus operandi. Harsh statements often come from your side resulting in increase of number of foes. You expect the same energy level as yours from everyone around. You have to understand that everyone has a different mindset and may not come upto your expectations.

Strongest Domain of your personality:

You have a kingly and authoritarian attitude. You want to rule than to be ruled. For you everything is possible and you believe in accepting every challenge.

Weakest Domain of your personality: The weak aspect of your personality is that it is very difficult for you to believe on any one easily. This suspicion in your nature sometimes makes you indecisive and sometimes forces you to remain aloof. Due to this problem you sometimes miss important opportunities. You need to understand that there is a difference between motivation and challenge.

Working Style:

Strength:

Weakness: You lack consistency in the execution of your plans.. The number of your opponents is usually high and you often suffer mental worries and miseries due to them. You have to check the feelings of solitude and loneliness that often dominates you and you feel depressed. You have to come up of the laziness of your behavior to exhibit your talent.

Attitude:

Strength: You are blessed with healing quality that is not confined only to physical but also to heart and soul. Secrecy is one of your major characteristics. You have a tremendous wave of energy and potential inside you. You know how to handle the odds and come in a win over situation against your opponents. You see everything with suspicion and hence take your own time to get comfortable with people and things around you. Due to this you are extra cautious and save yourself from many troubles. You don't accept any interference in your boundary. You are concerned about the truth behind everything. Your inner potential has the depths of ocean. If you make efforts you can activate the vital source of energy stored in our body in form of kundalini. You are ambitious and laborious.

Weakness: The only drawback is that you speak out the harsh truths at inappropriate time creating troubles for you. For you your views are more important than emotions. Your principles are your own set of rules, making you very insensitive sometimes. You are least concerned about your looks, appearance or clothing .You get appreciation for your enterprising approach. Due to your arrogant attitude you sometimes make yourself aloof from others and alone. Harshness of speech many a times put you in awkward situation. You sometimes blast, spoiling things all around. You have to come up of the petty issues of life to utilize the hidden and unbounded energy inside you.

Stress Management Ability:

The sixth house in our horoscope decides our stress management abilities. Stress management includes Fighting Spirit and comeback power. The sign in your 6th house is Aquarius. You are a person who loves harmony. The problem is that you see this world through your spectacles only. You expect lot from people around you and then ultimately feel frustrated.

You have martial planet Mars in your 6th house. You are bold in making decisions. Enemies are always there. You offer a tough resistance in adverse situations. You possess a fight back spirit. Endurance is another quality, which helps you win ultimately. Mars is your ascendant lord also. This position of the ascendant is said to confer energy equivalent to a lion. This accumulation of energy and an enthusiastic attitude sometimes make you overconfident.

In your natal chart 6th lord is posited in twelfth house. Sixth lord represents diseases, enemies' debts, obstacles and competitive spirit. Twelfth house is the house of expenses, traveling, relations and repayments. This placement of 6th lord may help you getting a good job elsewhere. This is also helpful in making repayments. Your physical comforts are much more than the expectations and this way your stress is minimized as a result of help from outside.

Public Relations:

In our horoscope fourth house manages our ability to get intimate with people, to maintain good public relations and to encash them when needed. The analysis of the fourth house of your horoscope indicates that presence of a watery and delicate sign in your house of public relations ensures emotional and caring people in your life. Ladies with a motherly instinct would be in your touch. The fury of your nature would often subside by these soft people around you. As emotional people always appreciate beauty, you will find yourself surrounded by glamour.

Team Spirit:

You are an excellent administrator and know how to get work done. Your spirit is good but you fail to cope up when it comes to perfection. Things become difficult after your straightforward statements. In a team everyone may not touch your standards of expectation. You need time to adjust but by that time people make staunch views about you. To strengthen this sector of yours, you only have to accept that everyone is not alike and variety is the spice of life.

Risk Taking ability:

Many a times you go blindly without estimating the pros and cons of the situation. If you are challenged for something you cannot resist yourself and accept the challenge, no matter what you have to pay for that. For a perfect personality you should always go for intelligent risk taking. Try to ignore the people who provoke or flatter you. You should try to avoid the extremities you are following in this respect.

Extra Edge of your personality:

You have a natural instinct for religion and philosophy. A deep thinking in these matters may give you peace of mind. You are very particular about your self-respect and dignity and accept no compromise in this aspect. You are appreciated for your courteous and sympathetic behavior

In your horoscope Jupiter is in the sign of debilitation. Astrologically you are advised to honor elderly people and should give due weightage to their advice. This will help you to control the temperamental fluctuations and also in taking rational decisions.

The blunt edge of your personality:

You have occasional bouts of pessimism. In the state of grave pessimism you show escapism. You need a good motivation at this time. It is a hard fact that such a motivation may not be present every time hence you need to strengthen your inner motivation. You should keep motivating things around you in form of key chains, posters etc. For most of the persons you are reserve in nature. It is very difficult for the persons to penetrate in your personal zone. You express a blunt denial in the matters you don't like. You select your close vicinity after careful examination.

Sectors of life you need to check:

Professional v/s Personal

Leo Sign is ruled by King Sun and this sign represents creativity, self respect, confidence, leadership and self pride. Presence of Rahu (Dragon's head) in Leo in your natal chart can make you self absorbed. You have to check this tendency so that you can share your creativity with all. With strong individualistic feelings, you often rebel if something goes against your will. Creativity potential within you is excellent and you can think in a unique and different manner & hence come up with outstanding output. Rahu is in enmity with Sun and hence you may initially come across struggle before achieving success. Life may surprise you with some unexpected big opportunities for which you have to be vigilant to grab. You have to learn to widen your horizon than to be self centered. You often lend helping hands to others but with an expectation of acknowledgement. You need to check some of these traits of your nature for the best display of your creative qualities.

Rational v/s Emotional

This sector of your life is very interesting. You pretend to be very rational in front of the others but somewhere at the core of your heart you are very emotional. The toughness that you carry with yourself often prevents you from expressing yourself. You can not deny that when you try to be very practical it is actually your ego which doesn't allow you to be emotional. You adopt the same behavior even while dealing with your dear ones. This lack of expression results in frustration which you display and spoil many things for yourself. You have to learn to maintain a balance in these two different poles of life. One thing we would like to tell you is that an honest expression to the one you are close to will change number of things for you.

You have a natural flair for unusual professions and often come out with extraordinary performance. The comfortable position of Dragon's tail would bestow on your material and spiritual gains.

Receptive v/s Adamant

In this sector your behavior is very unpredictable. You set your own principles and follow them religiously. Only a strong motivation can make you review your ideas. This feeling of being right often makes you stop a discussion with, "I know what I am talking about". You constantly try to tell others what to do. If you don't like people, you refuse to deal with them. It is hard for you to admit that you are wrong. If someone appeals you, you can be very receptive to him or her. In this way you are usually adamant and rarely receptive. It is again interesting that sometimes you know that you are not right and the view should be changed but again the same ego comes in between. We would suggest you to not let your ego come in between atleast when you are dealing with your near ones.

Assertive v/s Aggressive:

When you start, you sound assertive and remain such till things go according to you but as soon as you face opposition, you loose your temper. It is very difficult for you to hide the irritation in your voice. This irritability soon changes to an aggressive tone.

Although you make resolutions every time not to get aggressive yet when the time comes things go out of your control. So, we rate you aggressive than assertive. Resolutions will never help you. You should go for meditation and some yoga.

You as a person:

As we mentioned earlier in your Birth Chart Analysis that your lagna lord is Mars, the commander in chief of planets decides you as a person.. Mars is the significator of stamina, courage, valor, controversies and leadership abilities. Being the lagna lord or the lord of first house in your horoscope, Mars also governs the subjects of first house i.e. your personality, temperament, attitude towards life and physical ability. In your natal chart first lord Mars is situated in the sixth house which is the house of diseases, enemies debts and obstacles.. In your natal chart sixth house has Virgo sign ruled by Mercury. Position of Mars in Virgo in your birth chart brings ups & downs in your life. This position of Mars makes you practical, logical and diplomatic but at the same time gives you temperamental fluctuations.. To get the maximum benefit of qualities conferred by planets you need to check the temperament, habit of sharp reactions and your ego.

Mars and Mercury are unfriendly; Mercury blesses you with artistic fervor, skill, self-confidence and inclination for religion. Your eloquent speech impresses others towards you. You have ceremonial mind and you love religious ceremonies. Sometimes you have an unnecessary fear from enemies in your mind. Your extravagant habits cause harm to you and you are devoid of wealth. Try to change your habit. You have to check your boastful nature as this sometimes puts you down in gatherings. This boasting sometimes provokes you for taking unnecessary risks. With a big section of opponents you have to be careful in your movements. There are chances of debts, which you would be able to liquidate from time to time.

6th Mars bestows on you the kingly comforts of life. You would be very kind and generous. You may gain good property and wealth. You would enjoy happiness at domestic front. You have courage to win over enemies and you may achieve success in political affairs. Your sub-ordinates or employees may take full advantage of your generosity. Your calm attitude and pure heartedness make you popular among relatives. Try to be alert from the employees or sub-ordinates. You may acquire lands and comforts of vehicles also.

You as a sub-ordinate

In your natal chart Saturn is posited in Capricorn owner of which is Saturn himself. You are courageous enough to motivate your subordinates to work with you with full fledged co-operation and support. Your intelligence and polite behaviour is another factor of gaining respect for yourself from juniors. Subordinates would like to work with you and your company makes them joyous. A pleasant and peaceful working atmosphere will give you success all around.

You as a co worker

In your natal chart Mercury is posited in Leo which is a friendly sign for him but at the same time this is a kingly sign. It is a hard fact that your co-workers often complain of your proud and boastful attitude. Interestingly, you are often found complaining of their non-co-operative attitude. It is better to analyze your own behaviour and curb down the arrogance and sharp reaction of your behaviour.

You as a Boss

Sun the ruler in his own house leaves a unique impression of yours on senior officers and perfect balance at work place. You have a strong decision making power and influential working style, so superiors and subordinates, have much appreciation for you. You get a full fledged support and get the authority to rule over.

If you are a businessman, your business would be profit making through government and other agencies related to the ruling class or autonomous bodies. Higher authorities of state would be co-operative a

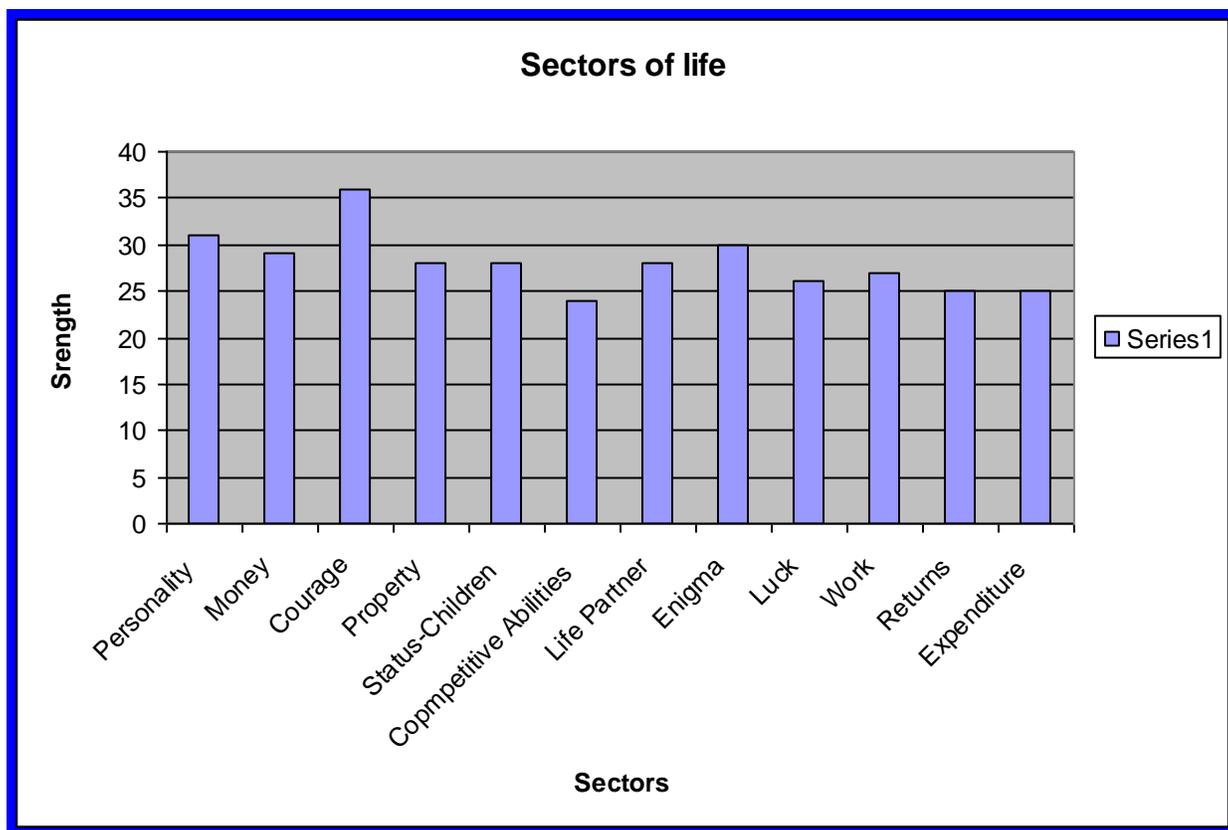

Professional Analysis:

Vocational Interest:

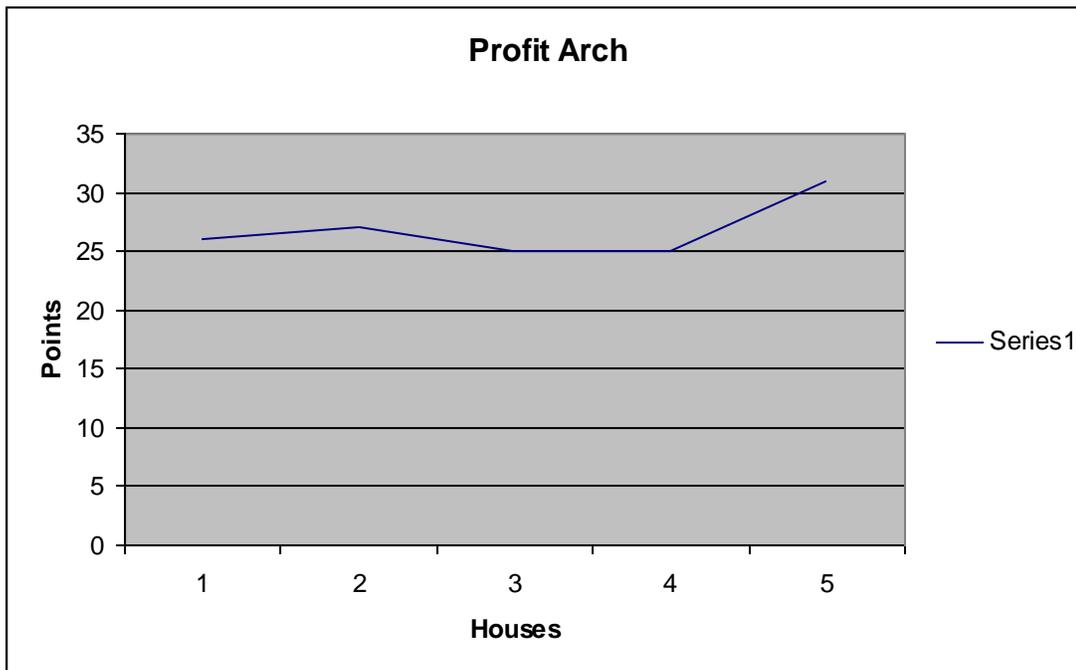

The beautiful morning star Venus has 'Art' and 'Beauty' as major subjects. With a critic's eye for beauty you have a keen interest for things associated with beauty and glamour. You have passion for fine arts and music. Your work place usually reflects this inclination of yours. Your efficiency and capacity increases if you are provided with music at work place. These soft emotions always motivate you for social service and you have a keen desire to contribute in this field. In your case it is very necessary that that you give a wide horizon to your hobbies and basic instincts of your heart.

Comparative analysis of sectors of life

The following comparative analysis of various sectors of life shows that you have a sound personality and a courageous attitude. The section that is lacking is proper planning. Avoid being overconfident. While taking important decisions an expert or elderly advice will help you a lot.

The following is the profit arch which explains that your endeavors are more than the fortune favors you. The income and expenditure are in the same ratio which results in no savings. The rising arch indicates that you have the caliber to overcome every odd. You should make little effort to reschedule your income and expenditure to have savings for future. We suggest you to look forward for a financial advisor for some long term investments.

Planetary Blessings

Jupiter transiting 9th to your ascendant would open up ways of inflow of money towards you out of your efforts. Your taste buds would be more active with good food coming your way very often. Harmony with spouse or fiancée would be very good and you would get a lot of happiness from family members. Everybody would mark and compliment on the increasing maturity in your thoughts. There are strong chances that there comes a gain of property through any means.

Threat

The period starting from Dec'08 upto Dec'09 is a threat period. During this period there may problems related to work place. Make sure that during this period you do charity work and respect all the elderly figures around you. Study of religious texts and religious journeys would also decrease the negative impact.

Period of Sadhe Saati

The first phase of Sadhe Saati starts from Sep2009 upto Nov'2011.

The second phase of Sadhe Saati starts from Nov'2011 upto Nov 2014.

The third phase of Sadhe Saati starts from Nov 2014 upto Jan'2017.

During the period of Sadhe Saati you should visit Shani temple on every Saturday. As planet Saturn represents the down trodden class of the society, you should be careful not to do any injustice with this class.

You Birthday year

Astrologically a new year starts for you from your Birthday. The starting two months i.e. August and September are not very auspicious for you. During this period you have to pay extra care regarding your health. The speed of the vehicle has to be controlled. During this period worship and charity related to planet Jupiter should be done to minimize the negative results.

Opportunities and Threats in the period ahead:

Your Period ahead

Saturn – Jupiter – Saturn: (15th December 2007 to 10th May 2008)

You are running through Saturn's major period with Jupiter's sub period. During this period you will get good financial gains. You have to work hard but much physical labour may be a matter of stress these days. You will get full co-operation from your elders co-borns. Advice of elderly family members will be fruitful and beneficial for you hence you should not ignore any such things.

Sudden and unexpected financial gains will boost up your confidence level. If you are in business, time is favourable for you regarding new partnership offers. You may accept a good one to initiate. If you are in service time is good for job conditions and you may get promotion and your social status will rise high this time, all you have to do is be a little patient as you may have to clarify your situation.

Saturn – Jupiter – Mercury: (10th May 2008 to 18th September 2008)

In the first quarter of the year 2009, you will have an additional subject added in your profession. If you are in service time is for elevation in career. To get extra benefits you should chant Venus regularly upto April with this mantra – “Ohm Shum Shukray Namah”.

Saturn – Jupiter – Sun : (14th April 2009 to 30th May, 2009)

Once again this time will prove the best one for you when you will taste the fruit of success all around. Your status will rise high. You will enjoy name, fame, popularity with higher officials will support you. Co-operation of officiale.

Time is not much favourable for fatherly figures around you. You will have to maintain their needs and boost up their morals. During this period you should chant lord Sun with the this mantra – “Ohm Grinih Suryay Namah”.

Saturn – Jupiter –Moon (30th May 2009 to 15th August 2009)

During this period you have to be a little careful regarding your personal relations. Health of mother will be a matter of concern. If you are in any sort of profession which is related to foreign countries, you have to be cautious in paper formalities as chances of negligence will be there to trouble you.

Saturn – Jupiter –Mars (15th August 2009 to 8th October 2009)

This time may prove beneficial in matters related to immovable property. You may plan to expand your properties in a high manner. Your popularity will rise high and you will be appreciated publicly.

Saturn – Jupiter – Rahu (8th October 2009 to 24 February 2010)

During this period you will get benefits from the advice of elderly people of your family. You may divert towards some sort of political organization or you may be inclined towards such type of activities. You have to be patient enough as you will not involve yourself in any act which is considered unethical. You may face some false allegations hence you should be a little careful while dealing with people around you.

Remedy

You should wear a yellow Sapphire of 5 ¼ ct in the index finger of your right hand on any Thursday, in the first hour of Sunrise.

With Best Wishes
